Comedy Kids

Do you enjoy watching comedy? Do all your friends at school think you tell great jokes? Then why not come and see what's happening at Comedy Kids?

Comedy Kids own comedy clubs in several countries that are run just for young people aged 10-15. They're real clubs with real comedians, who are just as familiar with working in adult comedy clubs as they are working with children. But don't take our word for it – come and see for yourself!

The Comedy Kids company was set up by John Winterton, who says that no-one had thought of being a stand-up comedian for young people until he came along. In fact, his act quickly became so popular that he soon found lots of other comedians who wanted to join his company and perform for families and young people. And if you think, as many others do, that a young people's comedian leaps on stage in a brightly-coloured costume and big red nose – think again. John usually appears dressed in a cool black jacket and trousers – more like a Hollywood movie star than a circus clown!

If you're having a party at home Comedy Kids can come and perform for you there at your party – just ask! Of course, it's not the same as performing on stage, so we're always looking for comedians in the clubs who are good at working with small numbers of young people – and we've discovered there aren't many of them about! But the ones we have found are brilliant. Your very own comedian will also help you to tell your guests some jokes and silly stories – and they can join in too, if they want! It'll be fun – and very different from any party you've ever had before!

Here at Comedy Kids, it's not just about the adults telling the jokes. We also have very short 'open spots' where young people get the chance to perform. But we've yet to find someone who can do that without preparation, so we've set up the world's first 'Comedy Classes' to teach young people how to tell jokes on stage. At the moment our classes are only monthly, but we're planning to start a number of others over the coming year. So if you want to be a comedian but don't want to wait until you grow up, this is where you can do it. And if you're creative but feel you're lacking in the confidence to speak up, we can certainly help. We'll listen to what you want to do, and try to make it happen.

So what are you waiting for? Come and join Comedy Kids!

Part 2. Read the text and questions below. For each question, mark the correct letter A, B, C or D on your answer sheet.

Ainsley Harriott

TRANSFER ALL YOUR ANSWERS TO YOUR SEPARATE ANSWER SHEET

I've always been a bit of an entertainer and played the funny man. I was a part-time comedian for years, so I learned how to stand in front of audiences. It made me sure of myself. I like being liked and I love making everyone smile.

I've lived in London all my life and have just moved to a larger house with my wife Clare and our two children, Jimmy and Madeleine. We spend a lot of time just singing and dancing around the house. I grew up with music because my dad is the pianist, Chester Harriott – who's still playing, by the way. My working day is divided between television and writing cook books, though TV takes most of my time. I spend about five days a fortnight working on the cooking programmes I appear in. I eat all sorts of things at home but I only buy quality food. When I'm cooking, I experiment with whatever is in the fridge - it's good practice for my TV series.

I'm a football fan and enjoy going to matches, but I'm a home-loving person really. I don't like going to the pub but we do go out to eat about twice a month. There's nothing better than a night at home playing with the children. I rarely go to bed before midnight. Late evening is when fresh thoughts on cooking usually come to me, so I often write or plan my programmes then. When I eventually get to bed, I have no trouble sleeping!

11. What is the writer's main purpose in writing the text?

- A to describe how he lives
- B to say what makes him laugh
- C to talk about his cooking ideas
- D to explain how he started in TV

12. What would a reader learn about Ainsley from the text?

- A He is a very good musician.
- B He likes to plan the family meals.
- C He is nervous about performing on stage.
- D He enjoys spending time with his family.

13. What does the writer say about himself?

- A He loves going out and meeting people.
- B He is very similar to his father.
- C He enjoys being popular.
- D He should go to bed earlier.

14. What does he say about his working life?

- ~~A~~ He would like to appear less on TV.
- ~~B~~ He gets his best ideas at certain times.
- C He prefers being a comedian.
- ~~D~~ He should practise cooking more.

15. Which of the following is the best description of the writer?

- | | |
|---|--|
| C The singing TV cook who likes making jokes, playing with his children, and having an early night. | D The cook and comedian who takes great care about the way he cooks his food and enjoys listening to music more than anything. |

by Jack Fletcher

Is there a great skatepark in your town? We've now got the (6) most fantastic skatepark ever, and it's all because of my friends and me!

Our old skatepark was full of broken equipment, so none of us ever went there. But we all agreed that (7) as we had a better skatepark in our town, we'd use it. And teenagers might come (8) to other towns to join us, too.

So I set up an online questionnaire to find out (9) about local people wanted. I asked them whether we should improve our old skatepark or build a completely new one. People voted to build a new one.

Then we held some events to get money to pay for it. In the end we collected half the cost, and the local council paid the rest. It (10) was finally finished last month. So, come and try it – you'll have a great time!

Part 3. Identify the name of an English/American city, hidden in the sentences below. There is a clue in the brackets.

E.g.: After competing in triathlon, Donna was very tired (the capital of the UK) – London

11. Housekeepers usually prefer washing to not doing anything (the capital of the USA). Washington
12. Please, use the suggestion box for direct comments about the quality of food (a city where Lewis Carroll lived and worked). Oxford
13. The local Congressman Chester Charing spoke about environmental problems (people who live in this English city are called Mancunians).
Manchester
14. Mabel fastened her seat belt before the plane took off (the capital of Northern Ireland). Belfast
15. The bank won't be able to issue a new credit card if for some reason you forget your PIN, so be extra careful (the capital of Wales).
