Suddenly I heard loud roaring somewhere near me. I widely opened my eyes and my heart started to beat faster. I thought about all the survival movies which I've seen in my life and started to run as fast as I can. I left my equipment on the ground but <sup>so</sup> it didn't bother me much. It was an hour since I started to run so I was really exhausted and hungry. At some point I just fell on the ground and passed out. The very next thing I remember was a face of a bearded man, which I <sup>have</sup> never seen before. I woke up in a brightly lighted room in the large house which appeared to be a property of a very rich man. The man smiled to me and told me that his name is Bill and he found me deep in the snow. I thanked him for <sup>so</sup> saving me and decided that I don't really want to complicate someone's life so I refused to have breakfast in his house. He said: „Someday we will meet again” And <sup>we</sup> actually did. That's how I met my Best friend Bill for the first time. <sup>45</sup>
